Hammond Power Solutions, Inc. (HPS) Joins Affiliated Distributors

Effective September 1, 2007 Hammond Power Solutions, Inc. (HPS) will become an A-D ESD Preferred Supplier.

HPS is pleased to announce that they will be joining Affiliated Distributors as a preferred supplier in the US Electrical Supply Division. Affiliated Distributors is the largest wholesale buying and marketing group in North America, with over 370 independent distributor companies and over 3,000 locations in the U.S. and Canada. HPS has been a supplier to the A-D affiliates in Canada for several years and this represents a natural extension of the rapid growth in the U.S. for HPS in the NAED channel.

HPS offers the broadest range of standard dry-type transformer products in the industry and has recently experienced extensive growth from a number of markets for these products. HPS is also the North American stand-alone leader for the design and manufacture of high quality custom dry-type transformers. With 90 years of experience in transformer design and development, HPS provides outstanding value and performance for the most difficult applications.
